

Position: College Chaplain (full-time for a three-year, renewable term)
Job Location: Toronto, ON
Job Posting: 29 January 2024

Review of applications will begin 29 February 2024 and will continue until the position is filled.

Wycliffe is a graduate school of Theology in the evangelical and Anglican tradition, working within the Toronto School of Theology (<https://www.tst.edu>) and granting degrees conjointly with the University of Toronto (<https://www.utoronto.ca/about-u-of-t>).

Applicants for this position should be in agreement with Wycliffe College's mission, vision, and moral commitments, and must be able to subscribe to the College's Six Principles (see <https://www.wycliffecollege.ca/about-us/mission-values>).

The successful candidate will be ordained in the Anglican or Episcopal Church (or other Church in the Anglican Communion) and have at least five years' pastoral experience. A graduate degree in theology is desirable, but not essential. The primary responsibility of the Chaplain is to cultivate a vibrant community at Wycliffe that includes domestic and international students and their families, faculty, staff, residents, commuters, and distant learners, and to be a pastoral resource for those preparing for leadership in the church. The Chaplain will offer pastoral care for the above groups and will provide daily oversight of the Chapel and supervise the Chapel leadership team. The Chaplain will work alongside Student Services and Student Council, overseeing the ministry of College fellowship groups and coordinating support for international students. The Chaplain will organize and direct the Field Education component of the curriculum throughout the year.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach two courses in the area of Pastoral Theology and Christian Formation for both Anglican and non-Anglican MDiv students.

In order to be considered for this position candidates are asked to submit the following documents (in PDF or MS Word formats):

- a letter of interest, giving evidence of your suitability for this position and including your email address and telephone number;
- a comprehensive curriculum vitae; and
- three references in support of your application (please ask your referees to send their references directly to Wycliffe College at the address indicated below).

All documents should be sent electronically to the Manager, Human Resources, Karen Baker-Bigauskas at wycliffe.principal@utoronto.ca, and to the attention of the Principal, Bishop Stephen Andrews.

Wycliffe has a diverse and global student body and it is situated in one of the world's most multicultural cities. Therefore, we particularly welcome applications from individuals who mirror the diversity of our community. The College is committed to employment equity and offers equal opportunities to qualified women and men, including visible minorities and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in keeping with Canadian law, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Final appointment is subject to receipt of official transcripts and completion of a satisfactory criminal record check.

If you should wish to make an informal inquiry, you are invited to contact: The Rt Rev. Dr Stephen Andrews, Principal, at stephen.andrews@wycliffe.utoronto.ca.
